Student Essay on U.N. Security Council Resolution 242 and the News Media

Write a brief essay about U.N. Resolution 242 and its use by the news media. Discuss the following:

According to the wording of the resolution and according to the intent of the people who wrote it, what were Israel and its Arab neighbors required to do? How does the news media often present the facts, and what effect do you think accuracy or inaccuracy of reporting might have on peace in the Middle East?

Make sure each paragraph focuses on one point, and that you have an introduction and conclusion. Continue on the back or on a new page if needed.
